

As of December 30th, 2019 the African Diaspora Directorate has seven divisions:

(1) a General Assembly with three operational chambers: a People's Congress, a Civil Society Organizational Congress and an Assembly of State Leaders;

(2) a African Diaspora Secretariat was established in the USA by August 25th, 2019 under management by Friends of the African Union through 2024. On 1 February 2020 it did go public to recruit new members;

(3) The African Diaspora Royal Society which is governed by The African Diaspora Directorate Royal Council. The Society is a membership of those of African Tribal Royalty in the global African Diaspora, the tribe in Ghana created for those in the global African Diaspora without a tribe, African Tribal Royalty that welcomes members of the African Diaspora in them and or tribes recognized by them for the members of the African Diaspora;

(4) a Civil Society Bureau will work with the African Union's (AU) Citizens and Diaspora Directorate (AU/CIDO) to implement the AU's engagement process with non-state actors through the involvement of the African Diaspora's Civil Society through AU/CIDO;

(5) a Diaspora Bureau will organize at a national, regional and or state geographic and Tribal level in the people of African Descent in the global African Diaspora who are African nationals. We are currently focused on Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) in line with AU's Economic, Social and Cultural Council, the United Nations, the European Union, Organization of American States along with other international and or multinational organizations;

(6) an Operations Bureau who will create and operate the partnerships and businesses called for by the organs of the African Diaspora Directorate Secretariat; and,

(7) The Business Operations Bureau shall create business corporations organized for a profit with a corporate purpose of creating general public benefit for the People of the African Diaspora (PAD). These benefit corporations offer PAD entrepreneurs and investors the option to build and invest in, businesses that operate in a socially and environmentally responsible manner.

Our Actions this year as the African Diaspora Directorate, a joint venture of the Brotherhood and Sisterhood BSI International, Blacks and Whites Uniting Communities, a CSO who on August 25th, 2019 at the 1619 400 year Commemoration of the African Diaspora Directorate (AfDiDi) in the year of Remembrance and Return (August 25th, 2019-August 25th 2019, 2020) in Cincinnati Ohio at the Main Public Library with Friends of the African Union, the Georgetown Public Library in Washington DC with AfDiDi Chairman, Executive Director and party and at Leimert Park during the monthly Sankofa Village did agree to the foregoing policy.

In addition, we recognize that economic opportunity is the greatest engine for empowering human rights for individuals and families to overcome adversity, and through this proposal will continue to fight for opportunity for all Americans with a focus on American citizens of African Heritage. During the historic 2020 year, we will work to implement at a local level the BlackFolksPlan.org. We started in Philadelphia on 1.16.20
